

Dear Applicant!

Thank you for visiting Wizz Air career page, we appreciate your interest in working for our company!

About Wizz Air!

Wizz Air, the largest low cost - low fare airline based in Central and Eastern Europe - since its start four years ago - has become the leading low fare airline in Central and Eastern Europe.

Wizz Air operates a fleet of modern Airbus A320 aircraft with an average age of 3 years, one of the youngest fleets in the world.

Wizz Air continues to win the hearts and minds of millions of passengers travelling in Europe. Fast pace of growth has been achieved by maintaining high quality service standards recognized by our customers and by a number of awards that we have received.

Based on the current fleet development plan, Wizz Air's fleet should consist of over 100 aircraft by 2016! Wizz Air has currently bases in Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania and in the Ukraine. Our continued growth brings with it constant job opportunities throughout our network (please check the current vacancies).

Working for Wizz Air

As a Wizz cabin crew member you will have a busy and fun lifestyle, a very different one from that of a "regular" job. You need to be flexible and resilient to the demands of working in unusual schedule, but after work as we are friendly and fun loving team, every year we celebrate at Wizz Air many occasions like Christmas or company anniversaries. We encourage you to join our team of cabin crew!

If you would like to be part of our success and become a cabin attendant

Requirements for a cabin attendant candidate

- Aged 19 or over
- Minimum 165cm (girls) and 170 cm (boys) in height
- High school education degree
- Fluent English both written and spoken
- Ability to swim
- Ability to reach the base airport in one hour during standby duty
- Some face-to-face customer service experience and sales skills

The perfect candidate also:

- Possesses excellent communication skills

- Is flexible and resilient to the demands of working in unusual schedule
- Is able to work under pressure
- Can easily work in a team
- An intermediate -level language exam (A, B or C) in one of the world languages is required by the Hungarian Civil Aviation Authority.

Additional information

- Tattoos and piercing (other than one earring per ear) are acceptable but must not be visible.
- Please note that if you wear glasses or contact lenses and your prescription are above + or below - 4 you are likely to fail the mandatory medical examination.

Selection process

The selection day (assessment centre) is comprised of the following sections:

- Company introduction
- Assessment centre type of activities and team games to assess the applicants' communication, interpersonal and problem solving skills, as well as ability to work in a group.
- Personal interviews

Please, note that during the assessment day selections will be made gradually and candidates will be informed about the results on the spot after each section. Therefore, if you successfully complete all the selection rounds you will be offered the training course at the end of the day.

Training

Candidates who pass successfully our selection process are offered a five-week training. Absence is not accepted, so all participants have to make sure they are able to attend the complete course. Additionally there is a one-day emergency training held at the airport facilities in Vienna.

Subjects of the training include:

- First Aid
- Aviation Security
- A320 Type training
- Cabin Attendant Duty Training
- Catering/Sales training

According to our current practice the cost of course is covered by Wizz Air except for the fee of the obligatory medical exam which is approx. 140 Euro, and to be paid by a candidate. After the successful completion and a two-week administrative period you will receive a Hungarian (or local) steward/ess license.

Wizz offers everybody who is hired, and has successfully completed the basic course, an indefinite period employment contract with a three-month probationary period.

Career at Wizz Air

Junior Cabin Attendant

After successful completion of the basic training course you start your career as a Junior Cabin Attendant.

Cabin Attendant

At the end of probationary period your performance will be assessed with a flight and briefing checks. If you are successful on both parts you will be promoted to Cabin Attendant.

Senior Cabin Attendant

After completing one year of work as a cabin attendant, and having at least 500 flight hours performed, you fulfill the formal criteria to apply for a Senior Cabin Attendant position. As Wizz Air grows very dynamically, the company offers many opportunities to be promoted to this position.

Cabin Crew Line Trainer

In the course of having continuously more aircraft in our fleet, we need cabin crew line trainers, whose main responsibility is to conduct flight checks in line with the regulatory guidelines. We require from a candidate for this position at least 6 months of experience as Senior Cabin Attendant and good interpersonal skills for coaching.

Instructor

Having more aircraft we are continuously in need of cabin crew experts to train new, as well as, current members of cabin crew. To be eligible to become instructor, you need to meet the criteria for Cabin Crew Line Trainer, have expert technical knowledge about the Airbus 320 cabin environment, and present excellent interpersonal and trainer's competences.

How to apply?

If you would like to join us, check for openings the "current vacancies" section, and please fill out the on-line application form for the base you are interested in (please attach as well your English CV and a recent photo).

Note, that in a due time you will be asked to provide references from at least 1-3 of your previous employers, with names and up-to-date telephone numbers. If working with us would be your first job, reference contacts from your schools will be requested.

Unfortunately, we are not able to give you feedback regarding your application. If you do not hear from us within 6 months after submitting it means that it has not been successful on this occasion. Those who pass the initial selection will be contacted via email and/or phone.